Speculator David's Fight for His Funds That He Receives to Be De- "The Evening World's" Charges Lost $75,000.

Of the old stock-brokerage firm of La Montagne, Clark & Co., now in liquidation, but two members figure as having been free from arrest for alleged irregularities in financial affairs. Herman C'arke was brought from Chicago some time ago charged with wrecking the firm of Hunter, Clarke & Jacobs, which he joined after leaving La Montigne. Clarke & Co. He is now on ball awaiting an examination. Edward La Montagne, jr., was arrested on the floor of the Stock Exchange yesterday afternoon on complaint of Florence B. David, a speculator, of Montreal, who alleges the crime of grand larceny against Montague. The latter secured bail in $10,000, his father-in-law, Dr. Robert Fulton Weir, of 27 West Thirty-third street, offering security, and Justice Taintor, in the Tombs Police Court, late yesterday afternoon set La Montagne's examination down for to-morrow tagne's examination down for to-morrow morning.

Later in the evening yesterday Elisha M. Fulton, Jr., who was a member of La Montagne, Clarke & Co., was taken to distout by Court Officer English on a warrant for grand larceny, issued by Justice Taintor. The compalmant was the a ove named David.

Mr. Fulton was taken to Justice Taintor's house, and there the magistrate held special court, ordering him to furnish $10,000 bonds for a hearing to-morrow in company with La Montagne. Sarah C. Fulton offered security for Fulton, Jr., in the house 117 East Twenty-first street.

Sarah C. Fulton offered security for Fulton, ir., in the house 117 East Twenty-first street.

When that hearing is called to-morey, it is more than likely that Herman Clarke, will be found among the defendants charged with grand larceny also by Capitalist David. A warrant was said to have been issued for him yesterday, and to-day Tombs court officers were looking for him.

The only other member of the old firm of La Montagne, Clarke & Co. is Wallace B. Smith, and he is unmolested simply because he is travelling in the West. It is not thought any action will be taken against Fulton, sr.

Mr. David alleges that the firm of La Montagne, Clarke & Co., while he was in Europe last Summer, closed out his accounts, causing him a loss in wheat speculation of $75,000. He says that his margins on the wheat deal were wiped out illegally.

Mr. Montagne's attorney, Charles H. Russell, and Counseller Elliott Norton, attorney for the Fultons, characterized the action of David as an attempt to force he settlement of what is a civil matter, if a court matter at all, in the criminal courts.

Force he settlement of what is a court matter, it all, in the criminal courts, a suit against La Montagne & Co. in January last, the defendants lawyer said, claiming damages in 187,000, which, he says, was due him as a balance on stock operations. The firm answered that the defendant suffered no damage, as his margins dispersations.

During the exciting days of the slump in Cordage stock La Montagne, Clarke & Co. sued for the recovery of a note of L. Waterbury & Co. for $55,333. The latter's defense was that La Montagne, Clarke & Co. had not properly come into the possession of the note.

The senior Mr. Fulton explained that he deposited the note for discount, and it was taken up when due by his firm, who then sued Waterbury & Co.

TOKIO LOST AGAIN.

Tokio is still absent despite the offer of a librai reward.

It was Sunday afternoon when Tokio last took it into his head to run away. His mistress and her husband had just left the house to catch the train for Boston. Of course, they rode in a carriage, and nestling on Miss Russell's lap was Tokio's sister.

Somehow the hall door was left ajar and Tokio made his escape. It was hours before his absence was noticed, and then there was a huliabaloo, which roused the neighborhood.

Up to noon to-day the lost, strayed or stolen Tokio had not been returned, and messages were still pouring in from Boston.

This is Tokio's second or third attempt at playing truant.

twelve precincts to hear from the returns give Smith, Democrat, for Mayor, the victory, with a majority of over 1,000. The result appeared doubtful until today, Davidson, Populist, had even a smaller vote than had before been conceded to him. J. J. McCardy, Republican, is recleted Comptroller by about 300 plurality. John Wagoner. Democrat, has 1,000 plurality for Treasurer. Municipal Judge Twohy, Democrat, is re-elected and the vote is close on the other Judge, Hall, Democrat, being slightly ahead.

The Democrats have five Aldermen to six Republicans and the Assembly is still in doubt. Mayor Wright, Republican, had 3,300 plurality two years ago. MEN'S SUITS
